Applications that fall outside the established rules will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis."

The fee ranges from £950 to £1,500

The fees quoted do not include the following:

Any Home Office fees for making the application. Clients will pay this to the Home Office directly as part of the application process.

- Where the Home Office refuse an application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal.

Disbursements are costs related to clients' matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees. Mrs. Rodriguez handles the payment of the disbursements on a client's behalf to ensure a smoother process. Disbursements are not included in the fixed legal fee. Disbursements may include:

- Interpreter's fees
- Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts.
- If there is an interview and Mrs. Rodriguez attends with a client, there will be additional disbursements in respect of our mileage/travel expenses.

Mrs. Rodriguez accepts payment in advance or by instalments.

The payment system is straightforward and clients can choose their best options such as: making the payment via our online payment system or over the phone. Paypal, cheque and all major credit cards are accepted, but if clients would rather arrange a bank transfer then that's also
